GOLDEN OLIVE - DOCUMENTARY

The jury awarded the GOLDEN OLIVE FOR THE BEST DOCUMENTARY PROGRAMME to "a BLOOMING BUSINESS" (Netherlands), directed by Ton van Zantvoort, produced by NEWTON film for VPRO for the outstanding artistic achievement of a strong film investigating one of the planet's most important contemporary issues : exploitation of the human and natural resources of the underdeveloped countries for providing the rich people with luxury goods.

We acknowledge an original author's approach, revealing a global drama through several simple, touching individual stories, as well as an incredible long term and dangerous personal involvement of the author.
